

By: Stephen Morgan
Bridgend artist and stroke

Bridgend Writers' Circle

Short Story Open Competition

2018

Information and Prizes

Welcome to our 2018 Short Story competition page

First we must thank our competition sponsors: Chapter Arts Centre - Cardiff

What We Are Looking For:

Stories on the theme of Your Own Choice

Length:

Between 1,500 and 1,800 words. The competition rules can be viewed and downloaded as PDF on Bridgend Writers' Circle website. Hard-copy entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form which can also be downloaded from the website.

[provided you have Adobe Reader or other PDF viewer installed on your PC]

Closing date: 1 March 2018

The Prizes:

1st prize is a £200 cash prize

2nd prize is a £50 cash prize

3rd prize is a £30 cash prize

Judging

A short-list will be drawn by experienced readers for our judge, Dave Lewis, to adjudicate.

Entry Fees

The entry fee is £5 for a single story or £7.50 for two stories. You must send your story as a hard-copy by post with a cheque to: Bridgend Writers' Circle, 7 Coed Derw, Bridgend, CF31 5HA

Cash will not be accepted.

Please remember

Entries should be sent by post as a hard-copy, with the correct postage. Folded, your entry should fit into an A5 envelope, which requires an ordinary stamp. However, if you choose to use an A4 envelope, a Large Letter stamp is needed. Letters withheld at the post office, due to insufficient postage will not be collected and paid for.

How To Enter

Rules, Conditions of Entry and Entry Forms can be viewed and downloaded from Bridgend Writers' Circle website:

<http://bridgendwriters.webplus.net/>

Our Sponsor this year is:

Chapter Art Centre: Market Road, Cardiff